Christmas Activity

AT ACTIVITY AT THE PEN-DLETON WOOLEN MILLS.

The near approach of Christmas is not if one will but go up to the woolen mills. There everything is in activity. Every machine is being worked to its full capacity to fill the rush orders that come in.
One order alone from a firm in New Mexico, it will require a money spent in advertising the few years is just beginning to return and the Christmas trade this year will be the largest in the history of the institution.
Requests for catalogues and information regarding those famous come from all over the world.
It is a common occurrence to to call an express wagon to the day's mail to the postoffice.
A number of these robes being ordered on individual orders alone efficient to prove that these goods more popular than ever for Christmas. These orders come from points where the goods are found in the local stores, when these are added to the numbers being distributed over counters of the various stores throughout the country, Pendleton can see what an interest has been created in the products of the mills.

Garments have not been shown in trade at large, yet the demand for the new line has far exceeded the output of the machines now installed.

The present time more orders for these garments are on file than possibly be turned out before Christmas.
Phillips, treasurer of the Root wool Association, publishers of The Dry Goods Economist, The Dry Goods Reporter, The Pacific Merchant, called at the mills one day this week and upon the Bath Robes, Lounging Jackets, Smoking Jackets and Tobog-ans now being manufactured.
He noted a greater success for these garments than even the Indian Robes which, he said, if they were placed before the merchants next year he would not think the present mill would be able to turn out even cloth enough for the garments alone.

making up Christmas lists Pendleton people should include something from our home town and thus in a way to advertise not only local institution, but the city of Pendleton as well.

HEALTH IN PANAMA

RIDGING THE ISTHMUS OF YELLOW FEVER GERMS.

Dr. W. C. Gorgas, Leading Medical Forces in Panama—The Mosquito Plague is at the Bottom of the Yellow Fever Plague—Panama Can Be Made Healthy by Systematic Work and Strict Regulations—Only Four Cases Since July 1, One of Them an American.

Panama, Dec. 10.—The advance agent of the Panama canal builder is the mosquito exterminator. In the great American project now under way the problem upon which depends the success or failure is one of sanitation, and the pesky little mosquito plays a leading part.

Dr. W. C. Gorgas is leading the medical forces, and he is authority for the statement that the great element of danger to the men who will open the vast waterway, is the mosquito, and this pest can be, and is now, partially eliminated.

Dr. Gorgas has had a world of experience in dealing with the miasmatic perils of the tropics. At his suggestion, at as many places as possible, have been established a system of quarantine satisfactorily, have educated the natives to sleep under nets and have cleared the blood of those infected with malaria, we will have checked the fever danger in the zone.

"With the sewerage and water supply systems the United States is installing in the cities of Colon and Panama completed, and with the Panama government working in cooperation with us and under our medical direction, I can see no reason why this country will not be as safe a place for Americans employed on the canal to live and work as any place in the world."

Dr. Gorgas has under his direct control in the sanitary department some 600 men. Young American office in the canal commission building in this city, he discussed at length the problems with which he is dealing with scientific and understanding, born of years of research.

"Volumes of tommorow have been circulated in the United States about the dangers of the isthmus," he said.
"The popular belief seems to be that death lurks in every foot of ground in Panama. To be sure, there are healthier places, and there are places on this globe that are much worse."

"I will make the statement, and my experience here is the basis for it, that, with the proper precautions taken against the known dangers, temperance in all habits and with proper precautions against exposure to this trying climate, a man can enjoy as good health on the isthmus of Panama as he can in the state of New York."

"To hear the talk in the states, one would be led to believe that this is a veritable hotbed of yellow fever. The truth is that since July 1, when I took charge of the sanitary corps, exactly four cases of yellow fever have come under my jurisdiction in the canal zone. Two of these cases proved fatal, and only one of the four patients was an American. He was one Cunningham, a clerk, who had not taken the proper precaution against exposure to mosquitoes. The other three were Italian laborers, and they, too, had neglected to protect themselves."

"We are working here upon the scientific conclusion that through the mosquito, and only in that way, is yellow or malarial fever contagious."
